

lille3000 THE VOYAGE GOES ON...

EUROPE XXL

« EAST IS THE NEW WEST IS THE NEW EAST... »

from 14 MARCH 2009 to 12 JULY 2009

Following the impact of « Bombaysers de Lille », the new edition of lille3000 will endeavour to discover the new Europe as redefined since the fall of the Berlin Wall, 20 years before 2009: Istanbul, Berlin, Riga, Tallinn, Vilnius, Budapest, Bucharest, Warsaw, Ljubljana, Belgrade, Zagreb, Sarajevo, Moscow...

In the city of Lille and on both sides of the cross-border region, events, exhibitions, artworks installed in the urban environment, shows and « Midi-Midi » weekends will take the visiting public on a series of day and night journeys to different cities and cultures from the far flung and sometimes mysterious edges of Europe.

EXHIBITIONS, METAMORPHOSES, INSTALLATIONS, DESIGN, ARCHITECTURE, CINEMA, PERFORMANCES, THEATRE, DANCE, CONCERTS, CLUBBING, LITERATURE, COMIC BOOK ART, DEBATES, CUISINE...

INVISIBLE BORDERS

lille3000 has invited several young art curators from Croatia, the Czech Republic, Bulgaria and Lithuania to bring their singular vision of the new Europe on the move within its "invisible borders". The choice of artists and works will help to transform our clichéd views and reveal the astonishing energies of the East.

ISTANBUL

« Rare are cities which give off such a vital force, such an animal energy » (Semih Vaner).

The only city to sit astride two continents, Istanbul is a frontier town at the apex of seas, cultures, religions and peoples. Coveted by the great powers of history, the city brings together both similar and strikingly different populations: Romans, Byzantines, Jews fleeing Spain, Armenians, mountain Kurds, Levanthians, Cherkessians, Albanians, Bosnians, Romanies, nomads from Asia...

As the heart of the "invisible borders", this exhibition aims to give an idea of the dynamic exchanges of artists, their mobility, the processes of change and how this networking can easily extend beyond questions of borders.
